CASE NUMBER: 16 Cr. 211

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, place of business, vehicle, and any property, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), electronic communications, data storage devices and/or other media under the his control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable suspicion that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the defendant's supervised release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.
2. The defendant shall undergo a sex-offense-specific evaluation and participate in an outpatient sex offender treatment and/or outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in any records for mental health assessment and treatment imposed as a consequence of this judgment to allow the probation officer to review the defendant's course of treatment and progress with the treatment provider. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of services rendered based on the defendant's ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the sex offender treatment provider and/or mental health treatment provider.
3. The defendant shall not have contact with the victim(s) in this case. This includes any physical, visual, written, or telephonic contact with such persons. Additionally, the defendant shall not directly cause or encourage anyone else to have such contact with the victim(s).
4. Defendant shall complete three hundred (300) hours of community service, at the direction and under the supervision of the Probation Department. The Probation Department is directed to be attentive to the defendant's physical condition and employment needs in determining the nature and timing of the appropriate community service.
5. The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody.
6. If the defendant is sentenced to any period of supervision, it is recommended that the defendant be supervised by the district of residence.
